Falcon 114 – Proteus

Motor yacht Proteus is built by Falcon 114ft. motor yacht in Greece launched in 2004. In Greek mythology Proteus is a God who serves Poseidon, Lord of the Sea, and is capable of changing his shape at will.

Let your holiday change and shape to match your mood. The beauty of a yacht is to go where you please, explore, escape. Today's Proteus is a luxurious motor yacht that lets you experience the ultimate in freedom, comfort and choice. Riding at anchor as evening falls and twilight colours the still water, cocktails under the stars create a romantic spell. Cutting through the water like a blade, the sleek design and powerful engines of Proteus provide very high performance. Widen your horizons from the splendid flying bridge and forward sun area where the beauty of bright skies and crystal waters can be experienced to the full. Stay active and healthy with a wide range of water toys and direct access to the sea from the aft swimming platform, or take off to a secluded beach with the powerful RIB tender. In a pine-forested seascape or hard rocky Cyclades islands, unchanged for centuries, time for breakfast in the open air has come. As the sun climbs in the sky relax in the shade of the bimini on the sun deck. Proteus will combine the beauty of the wood with the refined details with the stamp of excellence in design and with the most sophisticated technology.

She guarantees surprising space and versatility where the client will experience all the pleasure of personalizing and embellishing this jewel of Falcon. The vast flying bridge and the comfortable forward sun area allow life in the open air to be enjoyed to the full. The state of the art in style and entertainment in the salon features an opulent leather couch, internally lit coffee tables and a plasma screen which rises into view from its recessed cabinet. The spacious dining area features a table extending to comfortably sea 12 guests, a large ceiling mirror and an exquisite illuminated onyx panel. The rich cherrywood and leather upholstery of the interiors justify Falcon's reputation for fine design and craftsmanship. Accommodation is offered for 12 guests in 6 beautiful staterooms all with en suite facilities.

Cruising fast on speed of 23kn she can take you in all Greek islands and make an impression in all marinas. The bridge features the most sophisticated navigation and communication technology available to a civilian vessel. The skill and experience of the crew are your guarantee of comfort and safety at all times. Despite being one of the fastest for her size on the water, the superb design of the hull keeps noise and vibration to the minimum, so you can enjoy at any speed! A fabulous crew of 6 members will provide silver services on board.
